

ROYAL OBSERVER CORPS - POSTS
OFFICERS AND SUPERVISORY STAFF RESPONSIBILITIES

GROUP OFFICER

1. The Group Officer in war is:
  - a. Responsible to the Group Commandant for:
    - (1) Bringing the UKWMO Monitoring Posts allocated him to a state of full operational readiness, redeploying personnel as necessary.
    - (2) Attending at the place of duty designated by the Group Commandant.
    - (3) The provision of up-to-date information on administrative and logistic matters at UKWMO Monitoring Posts.
    - (4) The command of all ROC personnel on the strength of the Monitoring Posts allotted to him.
  - b. Responsible to the SDO for:
    - (1) The effective operational performance of the ROC personnel on the strength of the Monitoring Posts allotted to him; and
    - (2) Reporting failures of any kind which place limits upon the operational tasks which can be performed.
2. The Group Officer in Peace is responsible to the Group Commandant for:
  - a. The effective training of the Post personnel under his command.
  - b. The administration of Posts allotted to him and the administration and welfare of their personnel.
  - c. The supervision of the maintenance of the structure of the UKWMO Monitoring Posts allotted to him.

HEAD OBSERVER

3. The Head Observer in War is responsible to the Group Officer for:
  - a. Bringing his UKWMO Monitoring Post to a full state of operational readiness.
  - b. Preparing duty rosters for Nos 1, 2 and 3 Observers and his remaining personnel to ensure effective operations.
4. The Head Observer in Peace is responsible to the Group Officer for:
  - a. The operational efficiency and structural preparedness of his UKWMO Monitoring Post.
  - b. The training of his personnel by the Post Instructor.

c. The administration of his ROC Post and the administration and welfare of his personnel.

POST INSTRUCTOR

5. The Post Instructor is responsible to the Head Observer for:
  - a. The training of Post personnel to a high standard of operational efficiency.
  - b. The assumption of the Head Observer's responsibilities in his absence.